

Princess and the Frog

Production Info

After five successful years, Ever After Stage Productions is proud to present yet another unforgettable opportunity for young performers in its sixth annual production. Those selected to be part of the workshop youth theatre production of Princess and the Frog will have the chance to work with trained industry professionals through both production rehearsals and interactive workshops designed to develop fundamental theatrical skills in a fun, supportive, and exciting environment.

We encourage aspiring young performers to audition, regardless of experience level. Our goal is not only to create a magical and high-quality production, but also to nurture and grow each performer's confidence, creativity, and skill set throughout the rehearsal and workshop journey.

Princess and the Frog is an ensemble heavy show. There are a limited number of speaking roles available.

Princess and the Frog

Rehearsal and show dates:

Rehearsal Venue: 1297 John Vorster Dr, Doringkloof, Centurion

Rehearsal Dates: October 2026 - 20 March 2027

Rehearsal Times: Saturdays 9:00 am - 2:00 pm

Show Dates: The production will take place in early April 2027

NB! CAST MEMBERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO MISS SOME DAYS OF SCHOOL FOR SHOWS

Workshops (included in production):

Those who join the cast of Princess and the Frog will have the opportunity to take part in 2 exciting workshops throughout the rehearsal process. These workshops are designed to help prepare performers not only for Princess and the Frog, but for future productions and opportunities in the performing arts industry as well.

Each cast member will receive a workshop booklet at the start of rehearsals, allowing them to make notes, build their knowledge, and keep it as a valuable reference for the future. To get a glimpse into some of our previous workshops and productions, be sure to visit our Instagram page @everafterstage.

Rehearsals:

Princess and the Frog will be a 7-month commitment. We ask that those auditioning carefully consider the rehearsal dates and times, as attendance and commitment are extremely important throughout the production process. Rehearsals will take place every Saturday from 9:00 AM – 2:00 PM (excluding long weekends and the December holiday period). There will also be a minimum of 6 compulsory full-day show commitments during the week leading up to the performances as well as the performance time.

NB! CAST MEMBERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO MISS SOME DAYS OF SCHOOL FOR SHOWS

While the commitment is significant, the reward is even greater. Those cast will not only build lasting friendships and unforgettable memories with fellow performers, but will also receive ongoing musical theatre training and performance experience on a weekly basis.

If you would like a deeper insight into what to expect throughout the rehearsal journey, feel free to explore the reels and highlights on our Instagram page: @everafterstage.

Princess and the Frog

Fees:

If selected to join the cast of Princess and the Frog, performers will be required to pay a production fee which contributes toward their training, costumes, sets, props, as well as the 2 workshops and workshop materials provided throughout the rehearsal process.

This fee may be paid either as a once-off payment or in monthly installments.

Fee Structure:

Once off: R 2 200

Monthly fee: R455 pm x 5 Months (October 2026 - March 2027, excluding December 2026)

Safety:

Ever After was founded during the COVID-19 pandemic and therefore takes cast members' safety and health very seriously. During the course of the 10-month rehearsal process, cast members will begin to get stage fit and ready through rehearsals and body conditioning. We have staff members with first and second aid training to assist if, in the highly unlikely circumstance, an injury occurs. We also have strict rules about illness in place to keep cast members safe to avoid spreading illnesses.